New on the Hill: Blu Meze

A new and recent addition to Dempsey Hill, Blu Meze is a multi-cuisine tapas bar & restaurant that offers a unique dining experience unlike anything else in Singapore. With a service structure that eliminates the need for a menu, patrons can indulge in a hands-on experience with a personal touch. Its food menu is inspired by the travels of Blu Kouzina's executive chef and features a fusion of various cuisines. Extensive attention to design and carefully curated music playlists also help to create an elevated dining experience.

Learn more about this new dining spot from Gigi Tsakiris, from Blu Meze.

Blu Meze

What is unique about Blu Meze?

The first thing that is unique about the Blu Meze is its service structure—the first of its kind in Singapore and inspired by the restaurants industry's new sector known as fast-fine dining—offering fine dining food for a lower price and at a quicker delivery time.

What cuisines and flavours serve as major influences for the dishes at Blu Meze?

Greek home-cooked family dishes, as well as the travels to and ingredients from countries such as Lebanon, Spain, Portugal, India and South Africa predominantly inspire the menu.

How does service structure in Blu Meze eliminate the need for a menu?

Dishes are sectioned out into four different categories—Cold, Room Temperature, Hot, and Platters.

Cold and Room Temperature Mezedes will circulate designated areas throughout the restaurant where customers are free to choose whatever items they would like. Once customers have picked the plates they desire, the Cold Busser will note it on the guests' cold check sheet. Hot Mezedes and Platters will be noted on a ticker sheet found on each table, which the Hot Runner will come around to collect. Selected items will then be delivered to the table.

What is ambience of the restaurant like?

A vibe dining experience is created through the venues ambience. Designed with high ceilings and rustic, industrial furniture, it is a chic gathering spot that is ideal for any occasion. Furthermore, the carefully curated music playlists change every hour to elevate the guests' moods.

Is Blu Meze a dining location for quiet one-on-one meals or group outings?

Both. Whether coming in to dine for a corporate event or going for a first date, Blu Meze is designed to alleviate any tensions and make people feel comfortable right off the bat. This is instilled through our service structure, and our attention to creating the perfect vibe.

What dishes are a must try for a first-time patron?

Yiayia's Curry Cauliflower, Peri Peri Prawn, Papoutsakia (mousaka), Dolmades wrapped in cabbage, eggplant quartet.
